

Baylor Team Welcome Player Quotes

December 27, 2019

OL Sam Tecklenburg

On what he is looking forward to the most in New Orleans to experience: “It’s tough with bowl games because you have to balance football and it also is important to experience the city and just the environment. So definitely football but I’m looking forward to seeing the city, I’ve never been to New Orleans so kind of seeing what’s around, just check out the place and be around my teammates too. “

On the Big 12 championship loss to Oklahoma being something that was hard to get over: “Yeah, at the time that loss hurt but we’d be foolish to let that carry on this long. We have an unbelievable opportunity to be here at the Sugar Bowl and everyone is fully focused on this game. It’s an unbelievable game to be in, an unbelievable opportunity we have and everyone realizes that so we’re pretty excited.”

LB Jordan Williams

On what he is looking forward to most this week: “I am really ready for the food and the music and I’m not even going to lie, I am ready for Bourbon Street. I have never been on Bourbon Street and I just want to go see it and visit. I want to see a lot of the things and hear a lot of the music. I really want to see the guys that paint up and does the statue movements. I really want see that.”

On the type of food are you really looking forward to eating: “My girlfriend told me about something she wanted me to try? I can’t think of the name of it right now. It is like some type of funnel cake, [beignets?] yes! So that is going to be my biggest thing that I want to try.”
